

Abdolreza Ansari Scholarship Fund

1925-2020

Persia is pleased to accept applications for the Ansari Scholarship as announced on www.persia.education. The scholarship will be awarded by 10 December 2026, marking Human Rights Day and the anniversary of Mr Ansari's passing.

Requirements and Eligibility

The scholarship is designed to support the education of students of Iranian descent, of any age or citizenship, enrolled in a Master or Doctorate programme in human rights or public service at an internationally accredited university in the UK or beyond.

The applicant needs to present both a record of accomplishment in the past, and relevant future goals in public service or human rights.

All interested applicants must:

- Submit a complete copy of the application
- Submit a copy of your current CV/resume
- Be enrolled at an accredited Master or Doctorate programme
- Provide a copy of current transcripts
- Possess and maintain an honours/2:1/first class degree
- Provide two academic references demonstrating academic excellence and financial need
- Be of Iranian descent
- Include a statement demonstrating:
 - A record of accomplishment in public service or human rights
 - How the pursuit of a higher education will allow you to have a more significant impact in your chosen field of public service or human rights
- Submit two letters of recommendation: one from a previous professor and one from an organisation where they have worked on public service or human rights issues
